To: Parents/Guardians of pupils in Infants

Dear Parents/Guardians,

Our pupils in Infants will visit the post office on Wednesday next 4th December to post letters to Santa. These letters will tell him that they go to school in Our Lady of Lourdes National School and that they are working very hard here. A drawing by the pupil will also be included. This letter will not tell Santa what they would like for Christmas – this should be done in their letter written at home.

After posting their letters they will visit Sugar & Spice for milk & gingerbread men. Weather permitting they will walk to the post office and back accompanied by teachers and our special needs assistants.

If your child has a Santa hat please use it on the day.

Sincerely,

(Principal)

The font used in this letter is called ‘Dyslexie.’ It has been shown to reduce errors in reading by pupils with dyslexia. The school now uses this font for all correspondence.
